There's an Is-land in the sea, Home to you and home to me, Home to all her sons where'er they roam, — For no mat-ter where they are, Bri-tain's Isle is near or far, The land they one and all call Home! The peace our Isle en - joys Is guard - ed by her boys, The sons of those who are no more; The gal - lant and the tried Who fought and fell and died, In her de - fence, in days of yore!
